Narrator:

Now listen to two students discussing the letter.

Girl

Did you read that letter in the paper?

Boy

Sure, and though she's right about the problems, I don't think what she proposes will do much good.

Girl

Really?

Boy

Yeah, take her first suggestion. I mean, have you seen the health center?

Girl

Of course, why?

Boy

Well, it's tiny, right? The center suffers from lack of space, so, unless they built more treatment rooms or offices or something...

Girl

Now, I see.

Boy

And also, her second suggestion...

Girl

Seems like that'll help things out.

Boy

Well, not necessarily. I mean, think about it. A lot of students aren't even here on the weekends.

Girl

That's true.

Boy

They leave town and get away. There is not a lot of people here.

Girl

Yeah, like me. I go home probably at least twice a month.

Boy

Right! And a lot of us leave campus for the weekend even more often than that. So there is just not a lot of demand for treatment then. See what I mean?
