Narrator:

Now listen to two students discussing the article.

Female student:

Jim! You are in the choir, right? What do you think about what they are doing next year - this article?

Male student:

I really like it.

Female student:

Yeah?

Male student:

Yeah! The new director is right that it will motivate us.

Female student:

How's that?

Male student:

Well, some of the other schools are really good. So we will really have to work hard to go up against them.

Female student:

Yeah.

Male student:

I mean, right now we don't rehearse more than once a week. But if we know we'd be competing with other schools, we'd probably rehearse more often and improve our singing a lot.

Female student:

That's true. The more you practice, the better you get. So, um, what about what the article said about how this will help the program?

Male student:

I hope it works. Right now our program is pretty small, but we have some really talented people. And it will be great to attract even more people.

Female student:

So, how will this plan help?

Male student:

Well, if we go to these off-campus events and other people hear us and think we are really good, we might be able to get some new students interested in coming to this university, to be a part of our music program and perform at our choir concerts.

Female student:

You're right. I hadn't really thought about that.
