Narrator

Now listen to two students discussing the letter.

Male student

Mary, you are an art student. What do you think of this letter?

Female student

I don't like the idea.

Male student

Why not?

Female student

Well, first of all, his first point about a lot people passing through the student center, that's true, but...

Male student

But?

Female student

But it's always really crowded with people coming and going. It's not good for showing artwork. Imagine you are standing there, trying to look at a painting. There's gonna be like a million people walking through, people walking in front of you, blocking your view, distracting you...

Male student

Hm...yeah...hadn't thought of that.

Female student

You won't be able to appreciate the artwork, or get a good look at anything with so much going on, with so many people moving around.

Male student

Yeah, I see what you mean.

Female student

Plus, he's wrong about the windows.

Male student

But isn't it true that it's good for art to have lots of light?

Female student

In a sense, yeah, but that kind of light, all that natural light from windows? That's actually not good because if it's really sunny out, it'll be way too bright. If it's cloudy, it'll be way too dark.

Male student

Oh!

Female student

What you want is controlled light, consistent light, the kind you get from electric light bulbs. Think about in an art museum. In an art museum, you've got electric lighting, and the light is always carefully controlled, always at the same level.
